

Mi nombre: _____

2 Classify the different vertebrates.

shark

snake

frog

monkey

carp

parrot

giraffe

crocodile

sparrow

salamander

Vertebrates
Mammals	Birds	Fish	Reptiles	Amphibians

6 Complete the descriptions of the reptiles.

oviparous • carnivores • omnivores • lungs • four limbs • _____ • slither • swim

Cobras have a long body that is covered with _____.
They are very good hunters and can _____ very quickly.
Cobras are _____ and eat other snakes, birds and small mammals.

Alligators usually live in freshwater. They have four limbs but they can _____ faster than they can walk. They breathe with their _____. Alligators are _____ and lay their eggs on land which is near water.

Tortoises live on land. They have _____ and a hard shell. They can hide inside their shell for protection.
Most tortoises are herbivores but some are _____ and eat both plants and meat.

invertebrates

1

gills

2

birds

3 viviparous

4 herbivores

5 antennae

6

vertebrates

7 omnivores

8

oviparous

9

fur

10

These animals don't have a backbone.

1

These animals have a backbone.

7

These animals have feathers, a beak and wings.

3

Fish and baby amphibians breathe through these.

2

Gastropods have two eyes on the end of these.

6

These animals eat both plants and other animals.

8

This means to have live babies.

4

Many mammals have this type of body covering.

10

These animals eat only plants.

5

This means to lay eggs to reproduce.

9